1. Users access a hub to input all their flight data

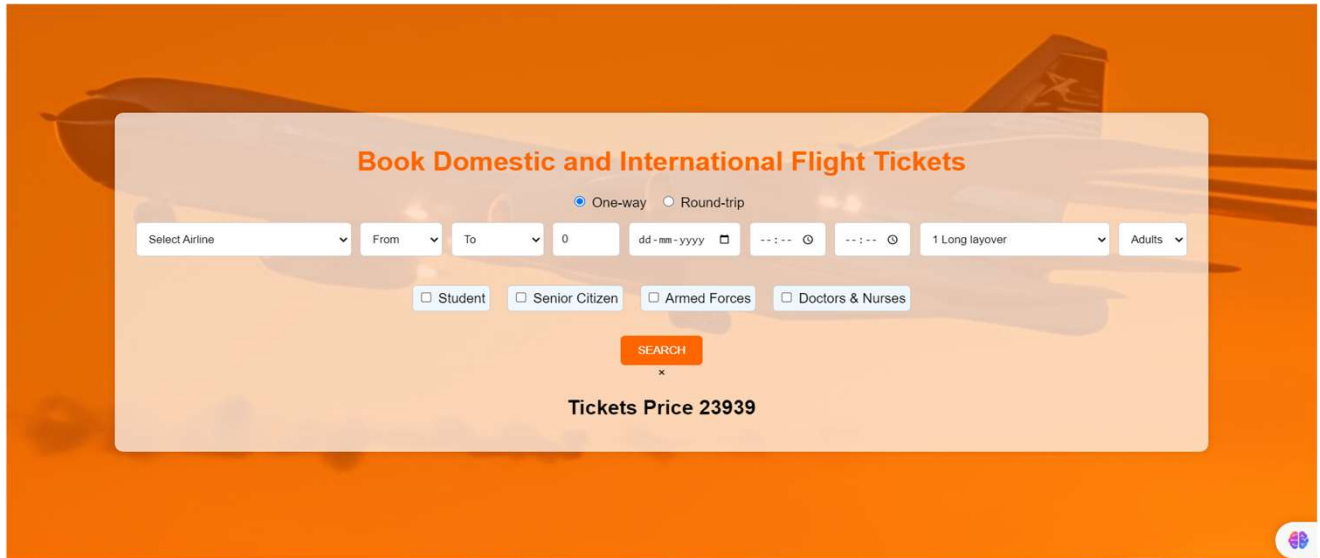

The screenshot shows a flight booking form titled "Book Domestic and International Flight Tickets" on an orange background with a faint airplane silhouette. The form includes a "One-way" radio button selected over "Round-trip". Below this are input fields for "Select Airline", "From", "To", "0" (likely a cabin class or age field), a date field "dd-mm-yyyy", two time fields "--:--", and a "1 Long layover" dropdown. At the bottom are checkboxes for "Student", "Senior Citizen", "Armed Forces", and "Doctors & Nurses", and a "SEARCH" button.

2. Pre-filled Data: The data entered by the user is saved and displayed.

The screenshot shows the same flight booking form, but with pre-filled data. The "One-way" radio button remains selected. The "Select Airline" dropdown is set to "IndiGo", "From" to "Bangalore", "To" to "Delhi", and the cabin class field now shows "0". The date field is "25-07-2024", the first time field is "08:30", the second is "14:25", and the layover dropdown is "Business class". The passenger count dropdown now shows "2". The "Senior Citizen" checkbox is now checked, while the others remain unchecked. The "SEARCH" button is still present.

3. Results: Upon clicking the submit or search button, the predicted flight prices are shown.

The screenshot shows a flight booking interface with an orange background and a white form. The form is titled "Book Domestic and International Flight Tickets" in orange text. Below the title, there are radio buttons for "One-way" (selected) and "Round-trip". The form contains several input fields: "Select Airline" (dropdown), "From" (dropdown), "To" (dropdown), a cabin class field with "0" and a dropdown, a departure date field with "dd-mm-yyyy" and a calendar icon, a return date field with "--/--/--" and a calendar icon, a "1 Long layover" dropdown, and an "Adults" dropdown. Below these fields are four checkboxes: "Student", "Senior Citizen", "Armed Forces", and "Doctors & Nurses". A red "SEARCH" button is centered below the checkboxes. Below the button, the text "Tickets Price 23939" is displayed. In the bottom right corner of the orange background, there is a small circular logo with a brain icon.
